

FIREMAN JUMPED AND WAS INJURED

Other Members of Crew Escaped
When Train Left Track

Engine and Few Freight Cars Left
Track at Hsley Yesterday Afternoon.

TRAFFIC WAS LONG DELAYED.

Fireman J. F. Grace was injured, an engine smashed and 19 box cars damaged in a derailment due to the spreading of rails at Hsley station, 60 miles east of Paducah on the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, Sunday evening at 6:06 o'clock. The wreck delayed traffic for ten hours, and the night flyer, No. 101, due from Louisville to Memphis at 6 o'clock p. m., passed this morning at 4 o'clock running ten minutes in advance of No. 103, as the first section of the latter train.

The derailment was the fourth section of freight No. 171, in charge of Engineer J. McClure, Fireman J. F. Grace and Conductor Werner. At the south switch at Hsley the engine left the tracks. Grace jumped and injured his shoulder in alighting. The engineer jumped and escaped injury. Ten cars followed the engine. The local wrecker was sent up to clear the tracks.

CHRISTIAN ESKILSON MISSING

And With Him About $15,000 of the Danes' Money.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Indemnity companies who stool sponsor for Christian Eskilson, the supreme treasurer of the Danish Brotherhood of America, were officially notified today by President Voght, of the order, that Eskilson is missing. There is an apparent shortage in his accounts of about $15,000.

Crapsey Hearing Is On.

New York, Nov. 5.—The ecclesiastical court of review of the second department resumed today its hearing of the appeal from the decision of the diocesan court, in the diocese of Western New York, which convicted Dr. Algernon S. Crapsey, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Rochester, of heretical teachings. Dr. Crapsey was convicted at Batavia, N. Y., last April. The appeal was first heard two weeks ago and the court is now sitting to prepare its decisions.

Shortage in Raisens Supply.

San Francisco, Nov. 5.—The present year is a record breaker in the raisen business in California. Fifty per cent. of the estimated output of Valencia and Malaga raisens that compete with the California product was ruined. A great raisen crop, it is said, was expected in California. The grapes grew, but mysteriously they lacked in sugar. This caused them to shrink.

Cuts Off Daughters.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The will of Wm. Scully, otherwise known as "Lord" Scully, said to be the largest owner of real estate in America, was filed here today for probate. The document was executed April 22, 1901. A his lands, none of which are outside of the United States, are devised absolutely to his wife E. Angela Scully. Mr. Scully totally disinherits his daughters, Mary, Julia and Kathleen.

Auto in River—Driver Missing.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 5.—An automobile owned by J. V. Harvey, of Scranton, was found this morning partly submerged in the Susquehanna river at the foot of a high embankment. It is believed it plunged over during the night Harvey was seen driving the machine last night and as he is missing today it is feared he was thrown into the river and drowned.

Youthful Murderers.

Indianapolis, Nov. 5.—Guy White, ten years old, and his sister, Selma, sixteen years old, wanted here for the alleged killing of Fred Miller, twelve years old, September 14, were captured today at the home of their grandmother in the hill near Smithville. Officers walked six miles through the woods to find the cabin.

Virginia Rammied by Linc.

Norfolk, Nov. 5.—The United States battleship Virginia was rammed in Hampton Roads today by the liner Monroe, from New York with freight and passengers. Both boats were considerably damaged. The Monroe landed her passengers here hurriedly. The Virginia steamed quickly to the navy yards.

Cashier Shoots Himself.

Salem, Ind., Nov. 5.—Charles Williams, acting cashier of the Citizens' bank, committed suicide with a shotgun in the vault of the bank this morning. It is claimed he suffered with temporary insanity, caused by business trouble. Funds of the bank are said to be all right.

A Test of Men.

The honest good will of the world, honestly won, is the best practical test of your conduct in life.—The American Magazine for November.

J. P. Morgan has just paid $4,000 duty on an illuminated Bible and manuscript enclosed in the box with the book. The manuscript is the original warrant for John Bunyan on the charge of heresy. The treasury agents abroad placed a value of $25,000 on the Bible, and King Edward is said to have been Morgan's competitor in the sale.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who a few weeks ago announced that he had reached the top of Mount McKinley, is now asked to corroborate the statement. Prof. H. C. Parker, of Columbia University, who was with the party last summer, believes that recent reports are unreliable.

Rev. Edward Everett Hale, D. D., celebrated last Sunday a half century in the pulpit of the South Congregational Society of Boston. Among his listeners at the anniversary service were a few who attended the installation exercises fifty years ago.

In spite of their years, some men refuse to grow old in journalistic work. Andrew J. Huntress, of the Haverhill Gazette, celebrated his eightieth birthday this week by going to his desk and doing the usual day's work.

"I received a letter yesterday from that pretty Boston girl."
"What did she say?"
"Don't know yet; I'm having the letter translated."—Chicago Journal.

PRESIDENT GOES TO PANAMA CANAL

As Soon As He Has Voted At Oyster Bay.

General Election in Nearly Every State in the Union Holds the Interest.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT PLANS

The forecast for the present week follows:

The elections Tuesday will be national in scope. Besides the selection of the national house of representatives, nearly every state in the union will choose its governor or other state officials. In all, votes will be cast in 42 states and three territories. In 22 states the legislatures to be chosen will elect United States senators.

President Roosevelt will go to Oyster Bay to vote Tuesday morning and immediately afterward will return to Washington to board the naval yacht Mayflower, which will take him to a point off West Trap Light, where he will embark on the battleship Louisiana for his trip to Porto Rico and Panama. The president will be accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, Surgeon General P. M. Rixey of the navy; M. C. Latta, the president's assistant secretary, and Lieutenant Frank T. Evans, son of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, who will act as the president's personal aide. The president expects to reach Colon Nov. 18. The Louisiana will be escorted by the cruisers Washington and Tennessee.

The meeting on November 7 of the national assembly at Cetinje will mark the beginning of the parliamentary system of government for Montenegro which was proclaimed by Prince Nicholas on December 19 last.

The French parliament which adjourned October 25, owing to the incompleteness of the ministerial declaration, will reconvene today. The parliamentary program of the new Clemenceau cabinet is understood to include the purchase of railroads and mines by the state, reforming the system of courts martial, abolition of the death penalty, a scheme for an income tax, complete enforcement of the church and state separation law and the creation of a state monopoly of petroleum and alcohol.

'POSSUM'S TAIL

Protruded Between Boards and He Was Quickly Bagged.

Snakes of the poisonous variety during the past several weeks have been discovered under the Illinois Central caboose shops, but this morning a 'possum was captured by Spencer Matthews colored.

Matthews saw something protruding from boards laid over a wheel.

"That looks to me like a 'possum," Matthews excitedly declared to fellow laborers, and immediately boards were flying.

Sure enough, a big 'possum was there crouching in one corner of the pit with his mouth open ready to fight for liberty. Matthews had caught "possums" before, and soon had his game bagged.

"Sweet taters and 'possum fo' me tonight," Matthews jubilantly declared wiping his mouth in expectation of the feast.

Miss Winstead Maid of Honor.

Miss Marie Cates, of Jackson, Tenn., and Mr. George Tinker, of St. Louis, will be married Thursday night at the First Methodist church of Jackson. Miss Lillie May Winstead, of Paducah, will be the maid of honor. It will be a yellow and white wedding.

Miss Cates is an attractive and popular girl who has visited Miss Winstead in Paducah and made many friends here. Mr. Tinker is a St. Louis millionaire.

Defective Flue.

The Nos. 2 and 4 fire companies were called to the residence of G. Fondaw, 307 Jarrett street, Mechanicsburg, Sunday morning at 11:30 o'clock. The house is owned by Walter Scott and caught from a defective flue. A few shingles were burned.

NEWS NOTES FROM SUNDAY PAPERS

Resort to a forgotten section of the code of California has been taken by alleged "hoodlers" in their fight against a San Francisco newspaper which has been fighting them. The law in question requires that any article attacking the honesty or integrity of anyone be signed by the writer.

A farmer at Richmond Ky., offered to give the Young Ladies' Missionary society of the Presbyterian church all the corn they would shuck in one day, and the society managed to get away with about eight barrels, which was sold on the street, bringing about $25.

Wireless telephony was given a successful test yesterday when fishermen in the fleet off the coast of Massachusetts were communicated with from the shore and informed as to the market price on fish.

Celebrations in honor of the independence of the republic began in Panama yesterday, and will continue until Monday.

Gov. Magoon has ordered the employment of strong bodies of rural guards in Cuba to suppress marauding bands.

Like Paducah Water.

That Paducah has the best water furnished her to drink is borne out by statements of Illinois Central trainmen. As evidence of the way they think about it, the Pullman diners are supplied with drinking water from the hydrants at Paducah daily.
